Matariki 8/10/06 1:46 PM Page 2

Written by Philippa Werry Illustrated by Samuel Sakaria

Distributed in New Zealand and the Pacific Islands by: Rainbow Reading Ltd PO Box 561 Nelson New Zealand www.rainbowreading.co.nz

Published 2007 by South Pacific Press Ltd PO Box 19088, Wellington, 6149, New Zealand www.southpacificpress.com

Text and illustrations copyright © South Pacific Press 2007

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying, recording, taping, or any information storage and retrieval system, without permission in writing from the publisher

Edited by Matt Comeskey and Don Long Designed by ThinkSpace Design

ISBN 978-1-877421-30-3

Printed in Hong Kong 10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

Will

Characters

Koro (Grandad)

Aunt Amiria Katarina Tipene

| Aunt Amiria: | Wake up, Katarina. You too, Will.It's time to get up.   |  |
|--------------|---|--|
| Katarina:    | What do you mean? It's still dark.                          |  |
| Will:        | Go away!  |  |
| Tipene:      | Hurry up, you two. You have to get up.                      |  |
| Katarina:    | What for?   |  |
| Will:        | Don't tell me you get up this earlyevery morning!       |  |
| Tipene:      | No, only on special occasions.                              |  |
| Will:        | What's so special about this one?                           |  |
| Tipene:      | We'll show you, but you have to get up.                     |  |
| Aunt Amiria: | Get dressed quickly, and come outside into the garden.      |  |
| Will:        | Outside, in the middle of the night?You must be joking. |  |

|     | Tipene:      | It's not the middle of thabout an hour before dyou have to hurry or yo |
|-----|--------------|--|
| up. | Katarina:    | Miss what?   |
| le  | Will:        | It must be freezing out  |
|     | Aunt Amiria: | Yes, it's cold, so put on yjacket.   |

2

the night. It's only e dawn. That's why you'll miss it.

at there.

n your warm, fleecy

|   | Katarina:    | What about Mum? Are you waking her up, too?                              | Katarina: | Shush, Will. It might really good.                   |
|---|--------------|--|-----------|--|
| Aunt Amiria                                 |              | No, your mum was up all night withthe baby. And she looked exhausted | Koro:     | If it's what I think it isand it's a great morni |
|   |              | when you all got off the bus lastnight. We'll let her have a rest.   | Tipene:   | Man, it's really cold.                        |
|   | Will:        | What about letting me have a rest?                                       | Will:     | I can't believe we're dAnyway, there's nothi     |
|   | Tipene:      | And Koro?  | Katarina: | The stars are beautifu                               |
|   | Aunt Amiria: | No, we won't wake him up either.He's old and he needs his sleep.     | Will:     | But we can see them jhome.                       |
| Koro: Who's old and needs his sleep? |              | Who's old and needs his sleep?   | Katarina: | No, we can't. We nev                                 |
|   | Will:        | Morena, Koro. I need my sleep even though I'm young.                     |           | clear as this at home.many lights.               |
|   |              |  |           |  |

nt be something

t is, it's really good ming for it!

doing this. hing to see but stars. ful, though.

just as well at ever see them as e. There are too

6

| Will:       | That's right. We've got street lights.We don't need stars. | Katarina:Koro:     | What's so special aboThose stars are very s   |  |
|-------------|--|------------------------|---|--|
| Katarina:   | What are you going to show us?   | v us? Matariki! I neve |   |  |
| Will:       | Hopefully, we can see it quickly and then we can go back to bed.             |                        | Matariki rising. Andplace to celebrate it,the apple trees, withjust over there. You o |  |
| Aunt Amiria | : All right, look over there.  |                        |   |  |
| Katarina:   | Where?   |                        | as fresh as these in th   |  |
| Tipene:     | I see them! Over there, just above the horizon.                              | Katarina:              | Why is the garden a celebrate Matariki, K   |  |
| Koro:       | Can you see that group of twinkling stars?                                   | Koro:                  | Matariki always appesky around now. Whthe crops had been h                                |  |
| Will:       | No.  |                        | time of the year andfood, so our people hfeasting, and speech                             |  |
| Tipene:     | That's because you've got youreyes shut.                                 |                        |   |  |
| Will:       | I know. I'm trying not to wake up.   |                        |   |  |
|             |  |                        |   |  |

oout them?

special. That's get tired of seeing id this is a good out here, among n my vegie garden 1 don't get vegetables the town!

good place to Koro?

pears in the dawn hen I was young, all harvested at this d there was plenty of had time for singing, h making.

| Katarina: | Look at that little sliver of a moon. |  |
|-----------|--|--|
|-----------|--|--|

- Tipene:Doesn't the first new moon after therising of Matariki mark the start of ourNew Year?
- Aunt Amiria: That's right, Tipene. And, as well as celebrating, this is a time to look back and remember all those who have died since last Matariki.

Tipene: Like Nana.

Katarina: Poor Koro. You must miss her a lot.

Koro: I miss her every day.

Aunt Amiria: Me, too.

Tipene: And me.

Koro: But I feel close to her, out here. It's good to bring the family together at Matariki, to learn about the stars and what they mean. We're lucky that you came to visit us at this time.

- Aunt Amiria: Our ancestors used to say that the stars of Matariki hold the souls of those who have died.
- Will: I can see six stars.

|   | Aunt Amiria: | Those are just the onesbut you can see more wThe ancient Greeks usedPleiades , or the Seventhem is a little hard to s |
|---|--------------|--|
|   | Will:        | Seven sisters! Two are b   |
| u | Koro:        | Some people say that thand her daughters.  |
|   | Katarina:    | Look, there's Mum at ththe baby! Quick, point,Matariki.  |
|   | Tipene:      | Yeah, she's looking. SheMarama up, so she can  | es that are clearest, e with a telescope. used to call them the en Sisters. One of to see.

8

e bad enough!

t they are a mother

t the window with int, so she can see

She's holding can see too.

| Katarina:    | Maybe we can have our own Matarikicelebration at home next year. Theremust be somewhere we could go wherethere aren't so many lights. We couldclimb a hill or go down to the beach.Wouldn't that be fun, Will? |
|--------------|--|
| Will:        | I guess it might be. So what do we do now?   |
| Aunt Amiria: | Let's go inside and light the fire so we can all warm up.  |
| Koro:        | And then we'll have a feast. Howabout some of your famous kumarafritters, Amiria?  |
| Aunt Amiria: | I haven't got any kumara ready.  |
| Tipene:      | But we can have pancakes!  |
| Will:        | Now, that sounds like a good idea.   |
| Tipene:      | And I want to make a kite.   |
| Katarina:    | Is that a part of the Matariki celebrations as well?   |
| Koro:        | Yes, Katarina. We make kites because they flutter up high, close to the stars.   |
| Will:        | Can we help you, Tipene? We can all fly kites and remember Nana.   |
|              |  |

| Katarina: | Balloons would be fun, too. Next yearwe should try and get some heliumballoons for Matariki. |
|-----------|---|
| Will:     | Look at the stars sparkling. They're so bright and clear.   |

Katarina: Koro, they remind me of Nana's eyes.

Glossary

| ancestors – | family members born l  |
|-------------|--|
| helium –    | a kind of gas that is ligballoons filled with helupwards when released |
| Koro –      | the Māori word for "Gr   |
| Matariki –  | the Māori name for Ple   |
| Pleiades –  | a group of stars, a cons   |
| sliver –    | a long, thin piece of so   |
|             |  |

long ago ghter than air – elium float d arandad" leiades astellation

omething

